Atento Ranked as One of the 25 World's Best Multinational Workplaces of 2015

- Third consecutive year of recognition by Great Place to Work®
- Only CRM/BPO company included in the ranking

NEW YORK, 14 October, 2015 – Atento S.A. (NYSE: ATTO), a leading provider of customer relationship management and business process outsourcing services worldwide, has been named one of the World's Best Multinational Workplaces of 2015 by Great Place to Work® (GPTW). The ranking is the world's largest annual study of workplace excellence and identifies the top 25 multinationals in terms of workplace culture.

In the 2015 edition of the World's Best Multinational Workplaces, Atento has reached the position #16, becoming, once again, the only company in its sector to be included in this global list. Over the years, Atento's strong focus on people management and workplace environment has become a fundamental component of the company's business model while being praised by different organizations worldwide. Most recently, Atento was also recognized as one of the 2015 Best Places to Work for in Latin America.

"Being included for a third consecutive year in the prestigious group of the World's 25 Best Multinationals to work for is a great honor for our company and a terrific recognition for our employees worldwide", said Alejandro Reynal, Atento's Chief Executive Officer. "I would like to thank all of them for their commitment and dedication both of which play a pivotal role in our company's great achievements and our ability to deliver the best customer experience for our clients".

"We are deeply committed to making Atento the most valued company by its employees, fostering participation, inclusion, trust and camaraderie. Sharing this recognition with other global leaders in people management and motivation as recognized by Great Place to Work® validates the success of our people programs and the emphasis we place in our employees", said Iñaki Cebollero, Atento's Chief People Officer.

As part of its strategic commitment to people, Atento currently deploy a wide range of local and global programs focused on employee training, development and motivation. Atento provided more than 13.5 million of hours of training in 2014 and constantly encourage a good work environment, teamwork, and pride in belonging through its motivation programs. Atento also promotes including the disabled in the labor market through initiatives such as Atento Impulsa, and encourages contributing value to the community through corporate volunteering programs such as Voces que Ayudan and the Global Community Month, Atento has more than 4,000 active volunteers per year. The company is also committed to the development of people entering the labor market for the first time as we are the employer of choice for countless of people looking for their first job.-
