Our growth strategy, which has been improving our revenue mix in the last couple years, continued to contribute to commercial wins in the quarter. Our enhanced capabilities from the latest acquisitions of RBrasil and Interfile, combined with our new digital platform, will help Atento to drive future growth by expanding our portfolio of services to offer complete end-to-end solutions to our clients. Based on our results in the first half of 2017 and the strength of our commercial pipeline, we remain confident in the trajectory of our business and we are revising our full-year guidance, notably increasing our outlook for revenue growth.”

Mr. Reynal continued, “Our new digital business unit continues to generate value for our clients and drive broad-based growth in each of our key markets. We recently announced a partnership with Keepcon, which will further expand our digital capabilities and allow us to provide differentiated customer experience solutions to generate competitive advantages for companies and increased satisfaction for consumers.”

Mauricio Montilha, Atento’s Chief Financial Officer, said, "We strengthened our balance sheet and enhanced our financial flexibility through disciplined capital allocation and vigilance over working capital. Our recent debt refinancing improves our cash flow, is accretive to our bottom line and will further increase our financial flexibility to allow us to remain focused on targeting investments aligned with our growth strategy.”

() We define non-recurring items as items that are limited in number, clearly identifiable, unusual, are unlikely to be repeated in the near future in the ordinary course of business and that have a material impact on the consolidated results of operations. Non-recurring items fall mainly into three categories of investment:

- The first includes investments to lower our variable cost structure, which is mostly labor, in response to the exceptional and severe adverse macroeconomic conditions in key markets such as Brazil, Spain and Mexico, which drove significant declines in volume. For the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 we invested $3.2 million and $1.4 million, respectively, in these activities. Considering the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, we invested $8.0 million and $3.8 million respectively in these activities.
 - The second includes investments in Brazil, to relocate and consolidate our sites from higher to lower costs locations. This program started in 2014 when 53 percent of our sites were in Tier 2 cities. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016 we invested $0.1 million and $5.7 million in these activities. We have not invested in this program for the three and six months ended in June 30, 2017 as it was substantially completed in 2016. We ended the three months period at June 30, 2017 with 63.9% of our sites in Tier 2 cities.
 - The third includes investments to drive a more sustainable lower-cost and competitive operating model, especially considering the exceptional adverse macroeconomic circumstances and associated declines in volume referenced above. For the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 we invested $3.5 million and $4.1 million, respectively, in these activities. Considering the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, we invested $4.8 million and $5.1 million respectively in these activities. We expect that these adjustments continue until the third quarter of 2017, due to exceptional macro circumstances in most cases, like in Brazil and Argentina.
- a) Restructuring costs for the three and six month ended June 30, 2016, are primarily related to costs to adapt the organizations in EMEA and Brazil to lower levels of activity and other minor restructurings in the Americas. Restructuring costs incurred in three and six months ended June 30, 2017, are primarily related to the costs of adapting the organization in Argentina and Brazil to the lower level of activities and the investments made in Brazil, Mexico and Spain to implement a lower-cost operating model.
 - b) Site relocation costs incurred for the three and six months ended June 30, 2016 are related to the anticipation of site closures in Brazil in connection with the site relocation program.
 - c) Asset impairments and other costs incurred for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 mainly refer to consulting and other non-recurring costs.

() We define non-recurring items as items that are limited in number, clearly identifiable, unusual, are unlikely to be repeated in the near future in the ordinary course of business and that have a material impact on the consolidated results of operations. Non-recurring items fall primarily into three categories of investment:

- The first includes investments to lower our variable cost structure, which is mostly labor, in response to the exceptional and severe adverse macroeconomic conditions in key markets such as Brazil, Spain and Mexico, which drove significant declines in volume. For the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 we invested $3.2 million and $1.3 million, respectively, in these activities. Considering the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, we invested $8.0 million and $3.7 million respectively in these activities.
- The second includes investments in Brazil, to relocate and consolidate our sites from higher to lower costs locations. This program started in 2014 when 53 percent of our sites were in Tier 2 cities. For the three and six months ended June 30, 2016 we invested $0.1 million and $5.7 million in these activities. We have not invested in this program for the three and six months ended in June 30, 2017 as it was substantially completed in 2016. We ended the three months period at June 30, 2017 with 63.9% of our sites in Tier 2 cities.
- The third includes investments to drive a more sustainable lower-cost and competitive operating model, especially considering the exceptional adverse macroeconomic circumstances and associated declines in volume referenced above. For the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 we invested $3.5 million and $4.0 million, respectively, in these activities. Considering the six months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017, we invested $4.8 million and $5.0 million respectively in these activities. We expect that these adjustments continue until the third quarter of 2017, due to exceptional macro circumstances in most cases, like in Brazil and Argentina.

a) Amortization of acquisition related intangible assets represents the amortization expense of customer base, recorded as intangible assets. This customer base represents the fair value (within the business combination involving the acquisition of control of Atento Group) of the intangible assets arising from service agreements (tacit or explicitly formulated in contracts) with Telefonica Group and with other customers.

b) Restructuring costs for the three and six month ended June 30, 2016, are primarily related to costs to adapt the organizations in EMEA and Brazil to lower levels of activity and other minor restructurings in the Americas. Restructuring costs incurred in three and six months ended June 30, 2017, are primarily related to the costs of adapting the organization in Argentina and Brazil to the lower level of activities and the investments made in Brazil, Mexico and Spain to implement a lower-cost operating model.

- c) Site relocation costs incurred for the three and six months ended June 30, 2016 are related to the anticipation of site closures in Brazil in connection with the site relocation program.
- d) Asset impairments and other costs incurred for the three months ended June 30, 2016 and 2017 mainly refer to consulting and other non-recurring costs.
- e) Since April 1, 2015, the Company designated the foreign currency risk on certain of its subsidiaries as net investment hedges using financial instruments as the hedging items. As a consequence, any gain or loss on the hedging instrument, related to the effective portion of the hedge is recognized in other comprehensive income (equity) as from that date. The gains or losses related to the ineffective portion are recognized in the income statements and for comparability, and those adjustments are added back to calculate Adjusted Earnings.
- f) Since 2015, our management analyzes the Company financial condition performance excluding net foreign exchange impacts, which eliminates the volatility of foreign exchange variances from our operational results.
- g) The tax effect represents the impact of the taxable adjustments based on tax rate of 13.1% for the three months period ended June 30, 2017, 30.4% for the same period ended June 30, 2016, 24.4% for the six month period ended June 30, 2017 and 29.4% for the same period ended June 30, 2016.

() Adjusted Earnings per share, is calculated based on the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding of 73,909,056 as of June 30, 2017. For the period ended June 30, 2016 the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding was 73,751,131.
